Infection in the Air.

At this season the vegetable world takes a new lease of life; but to the sensitive and delicate members of the human and delicate members of the human family it is a time of danger and often of great suffering. The moisture which rises from the earth and hangs suspended over it in the form of morning and evening mists and fogs, holds in solution, so to speak, the mephitic elements which produce fever and ague, remittent fevers, rheumatism, and many painful nervous disturbences, and which aggravate dyspepsis, billiousness and all minor affections of the stomach and the bowels. This, therefore, is a critical period of the year, a season when the renovating, reyear, a season when the renovating, re-freshing and purifying operation of the mightiest of all vegetable tonics and aleratives, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, salvation to the weak, and the best se-curity for the continuance of the health and vigor of the strong. Now is the time not only to protect the system against the common ailments of the season, but to prevent the disorders incident to a warmer emperature. Let not the exhaustin temperature. Let not the exhausting heats of the summer months find you unprepared to meet them. A course of Hostetter's Bitters, commenced now, will put all the physical energies in fighting trim, double the capacity of the internal organs to repel the causes of disease, refresh the brain and clear it of all hypochondrical cobwebs, and place the whole chondriacal cobwebs, and place the whole physique in an attitude of defence, with every available point fortified and guarded d as nearly invulnerable to unwhole me influence as it is possible for the human structure to be.

Keep the Hair Unblemished. Reep the Hair Unblemished....."I am like an old hemlock....withered at the top," said a venerable Indian Chief, point-ing to his thin and bleaching locks. Thousands of men and women in civil-ized society, much younger than the old Sagamore, are like him, "withered at the Sagamore, are like him, "withered at the top," simply because they have neglected to use the means of preserving and beautifying the hart which science had placed at their disposal. If Lyon's KATHAIRON be faithfully applied once or twice a day, be faithfully applied once or twice a day, to the fibers and the scalp, it is just as impossible that the bair should decay, wither, fall out or become harsh and fuzzy, as that a meadow, duly refreshed with nightly down and sunit rains, should become arid and barren of green blades. This matchless preparation not only keeps the hair alive and the skin of the head in a healthy and clean condition, but actually multiplies the filaments and imparts to them a lustre, flexibility and wavy beauty unattainable by any other mode of treatment. It does not, like the metallic and sulphurous hair dyes, dry up the natural moisture of the scalp, but supplies ural moisture of the scalp, but supplied nutriment to the roots of the hair and nutriment to the roots of the hair and yigor to the fibers.

Not Happy Enough. Not Happy Enough.

"Art though not happy forsooth?" So in substance, cries a great living writer.
"Be content with this happiness—to be able to do thy work!" But yet, alas, how many are there who fall short even of this! How many are there who are compelled inexorably day by day, to accomplish the task which Fate has allotted to them, to whom Fate has not likewise allotted the strength adequate. Somehow them, to whom Fate has not likewise allotted the strength adequate. Somehow or other, they indeed get their work done—because they must, but let broken spirits, attenuated muscles, impaired mental vigor—let these winesses say at what cost. Now there is a medicine to which sufferers of this class may resort with confidence—Dr. Gottlieb Fisch's Bitters. As a tonic this invigorates digestion—thoroughly and permanently; and that sprovides additional nutriment, obtained from food, for the overworked brain and muscles; and, as a wholesome stimulunt, it greatly assists the enfeebled tissues in appropriating the nutriment thus provided!

Take Particular Notice.

Dr. Fishblatt addresses all those who have in jured themselves by improper indulgences an solitary habite, which ruin both body and mind untiting them for either business, study, society These are some or the sac and measurement cleats produced by the early habits of youth vis. Weakness of the back, and limbs, pain in the breast, dimness of sight, loss of muscalar power, application of the heart; dyspepsis, nervous irritability, symptoms of consumption, derangement pospitation of the heart, dyspysia, none, post-iability, symptoms of communition, derangement of the digestive functions, de-MENTALIX.—The effects on the mind, ar-much to be dreaded. Loss of memory, confusio of ideas, depression of spirits, evil-forebodins, averation to society, self-distrust, love of solitude influtaty, 6c., are some of the evils populated. Thousands of persons of all ages can now judg what is the cause of their decliming beating loss that rigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous an emaciated, having a singular app arance above the eyes, cough, and symptoms of consumption who have injured themselves by a certain pea-tice, indulged when alone, a habit frequenti-learned from evil companion, or at acheol, the effects of which are nightly felt, even who asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impos-sible, and destroys both body and mind, shoul apply immediatory. apoly immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of the country, the pride of the parents, abould it anatched from all prospects and enjoyments or life by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indeliging in a certain secretable. Such persons must, before contemplatif.

Marriage,

reflect that a sound mind and body are the mew necessary requisites to promote councilal hay piness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary playimage; the prospects hourly darken to the view, the mine becomes shadowed with despair, and filler with the melancholy reflection that this happiness of another becomes highted with eur own.
